THE PARALLEL GOSPELS.

THE PARALLEL GOSPELS :
EXHIBITING AT ONE VIEW, IN FOUR COLLATERAL COLUMNS, EVERY CONCURRENT, CONFLICTING, AND ADDITIONAL PASSAGE OF EACH EVANGELIST ; FORMING ALSO, OF THE FOUR,
ONE CONTINUOUS GOSPEL.

INTENDED FOR THE USE OF RELIGIOUS STUDENTS OF ALL DENOMINATIONS.

COLLATED BY EDWARD SALMON,
LATE BARRISTER-AT-LAW.

London :
LONGMANS, GREEN & CO., PATERNOSTER ROW.

PRELIMINARY REMARKS.

IN THIS COLLATION the Gospel of St. Matthew has been accepted as the STANDARD to which the other three Evangelists are adjusted ; not only as being reputed to be the Primitive Gospel, and to have been written by the hand of that Apostle ; but, because, in a Work which is not intended merely as a Concordance, but as the UNITED TEXT to assist a Student in forming his own tenets in consistency with the supreme authority of the Gospels, it was necessary to preserve one Evangelist in the original order, with which every passage in the other three might be compared. The texts of St. Mark, of St. Luke, and of St. John are disarranged only so far as necessary to exhibit the extent of their parallelism with St. Matthew ; And reference is given to the Page at which every displaced passage may be read in the order of its own Gospel. Such corresponding, or additional, or dissimilar portions as could not be so brought into juxta-position, are referred to by notes in the margin, or in the blank spaces of the text.

An Index to the chapters and verses of each Evangelist precedes the Gospels. A Compendium of the leading Texts of each of them, and a Synopsis of Miracles, are subjoined.

The Collation has been made from that Edition of the New Testament printed at the Clarendon Press, Oxford, by Collingwood and Co., A.D. 1821.

ABBREVIATIONS EMPLOYED.

M. for St. Matthew.

Mk. for St. Mark.

L. for St. Luke.

J. for St. John.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

*Papias (a hearer of St. John and companion of Polycarp, as Irenæus† attests, and of that age as all agree) in a passage quoted by Eusebius‡ from a work now lost, expressly ascribes their respective Gospels to Matthæw and Mark.

C. X., S. 6, P. 107, Paley's Evidences, 1818

“Irenæus saith, that Matthæw among the Jews writ a Gospel in their own language, while Peter and Paul were preaching the Gospel at Rome and founding a church there. After their exit, Mark the disciple and interpreter of Peter, delivered to us in writing the things that had been preached by Peter: and Luke, the companion of St. Paul, put down in a book the Gospel preached by him. Afterwards, John, the disciple of the Lord, published a Gospel while he dwelt at Ephesus.

“Also, that only four Gospels were at that time publicly read and acknowledged. He mentions how Matthæw begins his Gospel: how Mark begins and ends his: enumerates the several passages in Luke which are not found in the other Evangelists: states the design with which John composed his Gospel; and accounts for the doctrinal declaration which precedes his narrative.”

Paley's Evidences, C. X., S. 10. P. 123, 124.

Papias, Irenæus, Origen, Jerome, assert that Matthæw composed a Hebrew Gospel. The Greek translation only is extant.

Gibbon's Decl. and Fall, C. XLI II., Note E.

“All the books of the New Testament were written in Greek, except the Gospel of St. Matthæw, who, according to St. Jerome (A.D. 392), first wrote in Judea in the Hebrew language.”

Lond. Encyclop. “Bible.” 1829.

* Papias martyred A.D. 167.

† Irenæus martyred A.D. 202

‡ Eusebius born A.D. 338.

N. B. All words written within square brackets [] are the variations of Dean Alford's revision.

1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2. The same was in the beginning with God.
3. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.
4. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.
5. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.
- M III. 1. 6. * There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
7. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe.
8. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.
9. That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.
10. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.
11. He came unto his own, and his own received him not.
12. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:
13. Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.
15. * John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.
16. And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.
17. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ

1. FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2. Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word;

3. It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4. That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5. * There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8. And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,

9. According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord,

10. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12. And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias : for thy prayer is heard ; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14. And thou shalt have joy and gladness ; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink ; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

16. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just ; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18. And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this ? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God ; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20. And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21. And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22. And when he came out he could not speak unto them : and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple : for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23. And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24. And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself.

3. And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4. And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5. And Salmon begat Booz of Raehab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6. And Jesse* begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7. And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8. And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9. And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10. And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11. And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon;

12. And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13. And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14. And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15. And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

ST. MARK.

ST. LUKE, I.

ST. JOHN, I.

16. And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary ; of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17. So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations ; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations ; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18. Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise :

when as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together she* was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife : for that which is conceived in her is of the Hely Ghost.

21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS : for he shall save his people from their sins.

26. And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27. To a virgii espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David ; and the virgin's name was Mary.

L. I. 35. P. 6.

28. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee : blessed art thou among women.

29. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary : for thou hast found favour with God.

31. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest : and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David :

22. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24. Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife :

25. And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son : and he called his name JESUS.

33. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever ; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man ?

35. And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy [Ghost] shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee : therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

L. I. 22

36. And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age : and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37. For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord ; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39. And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda ;

40. And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41. And it came to pass that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb ; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost :

42. And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women ; and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me ?

44. For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45. And blessed is she that believed ; for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46. And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48. For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden : for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49. For he that is mighty hath done to me great things ; and holy is his name.

50. And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51. He hath shewed strength with his arm ; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53. He hath filled the hungry with good things ; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54. He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy ;

55. As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56. And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57. Now Elisabeth's fulltime came that she should be delivered ; and she brought forth a son.

58. And her neighbours and her consins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy upon her ; and they rejoiced with her.

59. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child ; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60. And his mother answered and said, Not so ; but he shall be called John.

61. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62. And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63. And he asked for a writlog table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praised God.

65. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them : and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea.

66. And all they that heard tho laid tho up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67. And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel ; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69. And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David ;

70. As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began :

71. That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us ;

72. To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant ;

73. The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74. That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear,

75. In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

76. And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways :

77. To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,

78. Through the tender mercy of our God ; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us,

79. To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

1. Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king,* behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2. Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6. And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

CHAP. II.

1. And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem;

(because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5. To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shep-

8. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9. When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. L. II. 12.

10. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11. * And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. L. II. 16.

12. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13. And when they were departed, behold the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14. When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: L. II. 22.

herds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21. And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22. And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23. (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24. And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25. And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27. And he came by the Spirit into the temple ; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28. Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29. Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word :

30. For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31. Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people ;

32. A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33. And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel ; and for a sign which shall be spoken against :

35. (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser : she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity ;

37. And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom : and the grace of God was upon him.

15. And was there until the death of Herod : * that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16. ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18. In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19. But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

20. Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

42. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44. But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48. And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

50. And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

4. And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5. Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6. And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7. ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8. Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9. And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

19. " And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20. And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. (1) Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

22. Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23. He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. (2)

24. And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

7. And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8. I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

ST. JOHN, I.

darkness saw great light ; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17. ¶ From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent : for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (1) and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22. And they were astonished at his doctrine ; for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes. (1)

23. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit ; and he cried out,

24. Saying, Let us alone ; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth ? art thou come to destroy us ? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26. And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves saying, What thing is this ? what new doctrine is this ? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28. And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

35. And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36. And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37. And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38. And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also : for therefore came I forth.

39. And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

16. Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother and taught them on the sabbath days.

32. And they were astonished at his doctrine : for his word was with power.

33. ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34. Saying, Let us alone ; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth ? art thou come to destroy us ? I know thee who thou art ; the Holy One of God.

35. And Jesus rebuked him, saying Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36. And they were all amazed and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this !

for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37. And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

42. And when it was day, he departed and went out into a desert place :

and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43. And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also : for therefore am I sent.

44. And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

20. And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21. And going on from thence he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

3. And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4. Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5. And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing : nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net. (1)

6. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes : and their net brake. (2)

7. And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them.* And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me ; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9. For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken :

10. And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon.

And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not ; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

39. He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day : for it was about the tenth hour.

41. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

48. Nathanael said unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49. Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

50. Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51. And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

1. And the third day* there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2. And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6. And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

16. And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17. And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18. ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19. Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up

20. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21. But he spake of the temple of his body.

22. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23. ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

CHAP. III.

1. There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews :

2. The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God : for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old ? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born ?

5. Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6. That which is born of the flesh is flesh ; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth : so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9. Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be ?

10. Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things ?

11. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and ye receive not our witness.

12. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things ?

13. And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14. * And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up :

15. That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16. * For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world ; but that the world through him might be saved.

18. * He that believeth on him is not condemned : but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22. * After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea ; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.*

J. IV, 2. P. 25.

23. And John also was baptizing in Enon near to Salim, because there was much water there : and there came and were baptized.

M. IV, 12. XI. 2.

24. For John was not yet cast into prison.

25. * Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26. And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27. John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28. Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

32. And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth ; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33. He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

34. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God : for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

35. The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life : and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life ; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IV.

1. When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

2. (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) 3. He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4. And he must needs go through Samaria.

5. Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well : and it was about the sixth hour.

7. There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water : Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8. (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9. Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria ? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10. Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink ; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11. The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12. Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13. Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14. But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15. The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16. Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17. The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18. For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19. The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

23. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25. The woman saith unto him, I knew that Messiah cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

27. ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman : yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28. The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29. Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did : is not this the Christ?

30. Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31. ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32. But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33. Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34. Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

36. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto eternal life: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37. And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39. ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40. So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them : and he abode there two days.

41. And many more believed because of his own word ;

42. And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying : for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

45. Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast : for they also went unto the feast.

46. So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

M VIII. 5-13.

47. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son : for he was at the point of death.

48. Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49. The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way ; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51. And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52. Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth : and himself believed, and his whole house.

tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

[These words are not in the majority of ancient MSS.—A.]

4. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6. When Jesus saw him lie and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7. The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed and walk.

9. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10. ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11. He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12. Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13. And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15. The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16. And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17. ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18. Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19. Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20. For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21. For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22. For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23. That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

25. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26. For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself.

27. And hath given him authority to execute judgment also because he is the Son of man.

28. Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29. And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30. I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32. ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me ; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33. Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34. But I receive not testimony from man : but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35. He was a burning and a shining light : and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36. ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John : for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37. And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38. And ye have not his word abiding in you : for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39. ¶ Search the scriptures ; for in them ye think ye have eternal life : and they are they which testify of me.

40. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41. I receive not honour from men.

42. But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not : if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only ?

45. Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father : There is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me : for he wrote of me.

CHAP. VI.

1. Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4. That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

5. ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

33. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

47. Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like :

48. He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock : and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it : for it was founded upon a rock.

49. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth ; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell ; and the ruin of that house was great.

12. ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy : who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13. And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will ; be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

1. Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2. And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3. And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4. And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this :

5. For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6. Then Jesus went with them ; And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself : for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof :

7. Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee :

but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8. For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth ; and to another, Come, and he cometh ; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9. When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

5. ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

28 * And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

1. And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2. And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit.

3. Who had his dwelling among the tombs: and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4. Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: * neither could any man tame him.

5. And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying and cutting himself with stones.

6. But when he saw Jesus afar off he ran and worshipped him,

7. And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8. For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9. And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10. And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

29. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him; and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30. And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31. And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32. And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain:

and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them.

And he suffered them.

30. And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

2. And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed :

and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy : Son, be of good cheer : thy sins be forgiven thee.

3. And beheld certain of the scribes said within themselves,

This man blasphemeth.

4. And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, wherefore think ye evil in your hearts ?

5. For whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walk ?

6. But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7. And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9. And as Jesus passed forth from thence he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom ; and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

to receive them, no, not so much as about the door : and he preached the word unto them.

3. And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

5. When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6. But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7. Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies ? who can forgive sins but God only ?

8. And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts ?

9. Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee ; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk ?

12. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all : inasmuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13. And he went forth again by the seaside : and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14. And as he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

18. * And, behold, men V. brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy : and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst, before Jesus.

20. And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies ? Who can forgive sins but God alone ?

22. But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he, answering, said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts ?

23. Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee : or to say, Rise up and walk ?

24. But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thine house.

25. And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26. And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27. * And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom : and he said unto him, Follow me.

28. And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

ST. MATTHEW, IX.

10. ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12. But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

14. ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15. And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them?

but the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16. No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

29. And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans, and of others that sat down with them.

31. And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

20. ¶ And, behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years,

21. For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22. But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort : thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

24. And Jesus went with him ; and much people followed him ; and thronged him.

25. And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

27. When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.

42. For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying.

But as he went the people thronged him.

43. ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44. Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment :

and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd.

45. And Jesus said, Who touched me ? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him, said, Master, tho' multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me ?

46. And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me : for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47. And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48. And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort : thy faith hath made thee whole.* Go in peace.

why troublest thou the master any further?

36. As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid. Only believe.

37. And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James and John the brother of James.

38. And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39. And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? The damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40. And they laughed him to scorn.

But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41. And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi : which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42. And straightway the damsel arose, and walked ; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43. And he charged them straitly that no man should know it ; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

51. And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in save Peter and James and John and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52. And all wept and bewailed her.

But he said, Weep not ;

she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53. And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54. And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying ;

Maid, arise.

55. And her spirit came again ; and she rose straightway :

and he commanded to give her meat.

56. And her parents were astonished : but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

From P. 54.

1. There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things ?

3. I tell you, nay ; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4. Or these eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem ?

5. I tell you, nay : but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6. He spake also this parable ; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard ; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8. And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9. And if it bear fruit well: and if not then, after that, thou shalt cut it down.

10. And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11. And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13. And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14. And the ruler of the synagoge answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day: and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed; and not on the sabbath day.

15. The Lord then answered him and said, Thou hypocrite; doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16. And ought not this woman being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17. And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced, for all the glorious things that were done by him.

1. At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

23. And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24. And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

5. Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6. But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7. But if ye had known what this meaneth; I will have mercy, and not sacrifice; ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8. For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9. And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue.

10. And behold there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? That they might accuse him. (1)

11. And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12. How much then is a man better than a sheep?

wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13. Then saith he to the man, stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth: and it was restored whole, like as the other.

25. And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungered, he and they that were with him?

26. How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar, the high Priest, and did eat the shew bread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

28. Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAP. III. (from P. 46.)

1. And he entered again into the synagogue: and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

5. And he said unto them that the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6. And it came to pass also on another sabbath; that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7. And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day: that they might find an accusation against him.

L. XII, 5, P. 129.

8. But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9. Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing. Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to destroy it?

he said unto the man. Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so. And his hand was restored whole as the other.

19. He shall not strive, nor cry, neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20. A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21. And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22. Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb ; and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23. And all the people were amazed ; and said, Is not this the Son of David ?

and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,

8. And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan ; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9. And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10. For he had healed many ; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11. And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

18. ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20. But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it ;

21. Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while : for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word ; and the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23. But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it ; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24. ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field :

25. But while men slept, his enemy came, and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, there appeared the tares also.

30. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest, I will say to the reapers, Gather up together first the tares, and bind them together in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

From P. 67.

26. ¶ And he said, so is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground:

27. And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

31. ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying,

The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and hid in his field:

32. Which indeed is the least of all seeds:

but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs: and becometh a tree; so that the birds of the air come, and lodge in the branches thereof.

33. ¶ Another parable spake he unto them: The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34. All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35. That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36. Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him,

30. ¶ And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31. It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32. But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches: so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33. And with many such parables spake he the word unto them; as they were able to bear it.

34. But without a parable spake he not unto them:

Chap. XIII. from P. 61.

18. ¶ Then saith he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? And whereunto shall I resemble it?

19. It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden:

and it grew, and waxed a great tree and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20. And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21. It is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37. He answered, and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man :

38. The field is the world : the good seed are the children of the kingdom : but the tares are the children of the wicked one :

39. The enemy that sowed them is the devil : the harvest is the end of the world : and the reapers are the angels.

40. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so shall it be in the end of this world.

41. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather, out of his kingdom, all things that offend, and them which do iniquity ;

42. And shall cast them into a furnace of fire ; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

See v. 50 below.

43. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun, in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear let him hear.

See v. 9.

44. ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field ; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth, and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45. ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchantman seeking goodly pearls :

46. Who when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

47. ¶ Again the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind :

48. Which when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels ; but cast the bad away.

49. So shall it be at the end of the world : the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just ;

50. And shall cast them into the furnace of fire : there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.*

51. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things ? they say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man and when they were alone he expounded all things to his disciples.

he departed thence.

54. And when he was come into his own country

1. And he went out from thence, and came into his own country ; and his disciples follow him.

he taught them in their synagogue.

2. And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue :

Chap. IV. from P. 18.

16. ¶ And he came to Nazareth where he had been brought up :

and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor : he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted : to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind : to set at liberty them that are bruised :

19. To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22. And all bear him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth.

and they said, Is not this Joseph's son ?

in so much that they were astonished ; and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works ?

and many, hearing him were astonished : saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands ?

55. Is not this the carpenter's son ? Is not his mother called Mary ? (1)

And his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas ? (2)

56. And his sisters, are they not all with us ? Whence then hath this man all these things ?

57. And they were offended in him. (3)

3. Is not this the carpenter ; the son of Mary ; the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon ?

and are not his sisters here with us ?

And they were offended at him.

23. And he said unto them,

But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour save in his own country,

4. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour but in his own country; among his own kin: and in his own house.

Ye will surely say unto me this proverb,
Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24. And he said, Verily, I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25. But I tell you of a truth, Many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months; when great famine was throughout all the land:

26. But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed saving Naaman, the Syrian.

28. And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath.

29. And rose up, and thrust him out of the city; and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30. But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way.

58. And he did not many mighty works there; because of their unbelief.

5. And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6. And he marvelled because of their unbelief: and he went round about the villages teaching.

14. And king Herod heard of him, (for his name was spread abroad;) and he said, That John the Baptist is risen from the dead: and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

15. Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet; or as one of the prophets.

16. But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John whom I have beheaded; he is risen from the dead.

Chap. IX. from P. 56.

7. * Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, That John was risen from the dead:

8. And of some that Elias had appeared: and of other that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9. And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things?

3. ¶ For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison, for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4. For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5. And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6. But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them; and pleased Herod.

7. Whereupon he promised, with an oath, to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8. And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9. And the king was sorry. Nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10. And he sent, and he headed John in the prison.

11. And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12. And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it,

ST. MARK, VI.

17. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison, for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18. For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19. Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20. For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man, and an holy, and observed him:

and when he heard him, he did many things; and heard him gladly.

21. And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday, made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22. And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him; the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23. And he sware unto her, whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24. And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by, in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

26. And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27. And immediately the king sent an executioner; and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28. And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29. And when his disciples heard of it, they came, and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

and went and told Jesus.

13. * When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence, by ship, into a desert place apart : and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14. And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15. † And when it was evening his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past : send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves victuals.

16. But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart : give ye them to eat.

17. And they said unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. (1)

30. And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things ; both what they had done and what they had taught.

31. And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest awhile : for there were many coming and going ; and they had no leisure, so much as to eat.

32. And they departed into a desert place by ship, privately.

33. And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities ; and outwent them ; and came together unto him.

31. And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them ; because they were as sheep not having a shepherd : and he began to teach them many things.

35. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said,

This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed :

36. Send them away ; that they may go into the country round about and into the villages ; and buy themselves bread : for they have nothing to eat.

37. He answered, and said unto them, Give ye them to eat.

And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat ?

38. He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye ? Go and see. And when they knew they say, Five : and two fishes.

Chap. IX. from P. 33.

10. * And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done.

And he took them, and went aside privately, into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11. And the people, when they knew it, followed him ; and he received them ; and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, And healed them that had need of healing.

12. And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, send the multitude away that they may go into the towns, and country round about and lodge, and get victuals :

for we are here in a desert place.

13. But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat.

and they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes ; except we should go and buy meat for all this people. (1)

14. For they were about five thousand men. (2)

Ch. VI.

1. After these things, Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3. And Jesus went up into a mountain ; and there he sat with his disciples.

4. And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5. * When Jesus then lifted up his eyes and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat ?

6. And this he said to prove him ; for he himself knew what he would do.

7. Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

20. And they did all eat, and were filled :

and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21. And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children,

22. ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain, apart, to pray. And when the evening was come he was there alone.

24. But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves : for the wind was contrary.

25. And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea,

26. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit : and they cried out for fear.

27. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer : It is I : be not afraid.

39. And he commanded them to make all sit down, by companies upon the green grass.

40. And they sat down in ranks by hundreds, and by fifties.

41. And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them : and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42. And they did all eat, and were filled.

43. And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments, and of the two fishes.

44. And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45. And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side, before, unto Bethsaida,* while he sent away the people.

46. And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47. And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48. And he saw them toiling in rowing : for the wind was contrary unto them :

and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea ; and would have passed by them.

49. But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit : and cried out :

50. For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them ; and saith unto them, Be of good cheer : It is I : be not afraid.

And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15. And they did so; and made them all sit down.

16. Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

10. And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11. And Jesus took the loaves: and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down : and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

15. ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king,* he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16. And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17. And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum.*

And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

30. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid : and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord save me.

31. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him ; and said unto him, O thou of little faith ; wherefore didst thou doubt ?

32. And when they were come into the ship the wind ceased.

33. Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him ; saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34. ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. (1)

35. And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about and brought unto him all that were diseased ;

36. And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment, and as many as touched were made perfectly whole. Continued P. 79.

51. And he went up unto them into the ship ; and the wind ceased.

And they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52. For they considered not the miracle of the loaves : for their heart was hardened.

54. And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him ;

53. And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

55. And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56. And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets ; and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment : and as many as touched him were made whole.

21. Then they willingly received him into the ship :

28. Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God ?

30. They said therefore unto him, What sign* showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee ? What dost thou work ?

31. Our fathers did eat manna in the desert ; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven : But my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34. Then said they unto them, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35. And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life : he that cometh to me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36. But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me : and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

51. I am the living bread which came down from heaven : if any man eat of this bread he shall live for ever : and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52. The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat ?

53. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

CHAP. VII. (From P. 76.)

1. Then came to Jesus Scribes and Pharisees which were of Jerusalem, saying,

1. Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the Scribes which came from Jerusalem.

2. And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say with unwashen hands, they found fault.

3. For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4. And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brazen vessels, and of tables.

2. Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they wash not their hauds when they eat bread.

5. Then the Pharisees and Scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

3. But he answered and said unto them,

6. He answered and said unto them,

8. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, [as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.]† this offend you?

Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God [by]* your tradition?

62. What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63. It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing; the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65. And he said, Therefore said I unto you, That no man can come unto me except it were given unto him of my Father.

66. † From that time many of his disciples drew back, and walked no more with him.

67. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68. Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, To whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life.

4. For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother : and he that curseth father and mother, let him die the death.

5. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father, or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me ;

6. And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free.

Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7. Ye hypocrites. Well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8. This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips ; but their heart is far from me.

9. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10. * And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear and understand :

11. Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man : but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12. Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying ?

13. But he answered, and said, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14. Let them alone : they be blind leaders of the blind : and if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15. Then answered Peter, and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16. And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding ?

17. Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught ?

18. But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart ; and they defile the man.

14. And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Harken unto me every one of you, and understand :

15. There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him : but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16. [If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.]*

17. And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18. And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also ? Do ye not perceive that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him ;

19. Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught : purging all meats ?

proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies :

20. These are the things which defile a man :
but to eat with unwashed hands defileth not a man.

21. ¶ Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22. And, behold, a woman of Canaan* came out of the same coasts ; and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me ; O Lord, thou Son of David ; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23. But he answered her not a word.

And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away ; for she crieth after us.

24. But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25. Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord help me.

26. But he answered and said,

It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27. And she said,
Truth, Lord, yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table.

28. Then Jesus answered, and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith : be it unto thee even as thou wilt.

And her daughter was made whole, from that very hour.

29. And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee ; and went up into a mountaie, and sat down there.

30. And great multitudes came unto him ; having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down

22. Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness :

23. All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24. ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon ; and entered into an house, and would have no man know it : but he could not be hid.

25. For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet :

26. The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation ;* and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27. But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled : for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28. And she answered, and said unto him, Yes, Lord ; yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29. And he said unto her,
For this saying go thy way :
The devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30. And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31. ¶ And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech ; and they beseech him to put his hands upon him.

at Jesus' feet ;

33. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears ; and he spit, and touched his tongue ;

34. And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36. And he charged them that they should tell no man : but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it ;

37. And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well : he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

and he healed them :

31. Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see : and they glorified the God of Israel.

CHAP. VIII.

32. Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude because they continue with me now three days ; and have nothing to eat : and I will not send them away fasting lest they faint in the way.

33. And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness as to fill so great a multitude ?

34. And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye ? and they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36. And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave them to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37. And they did all eat, and were filled : and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets full.

1. The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting,

3. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day; for the sky is red and lowering.

ing into the ship, again departed to the other side.

gotten to take bread:

neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15. And he charged them, saying,
Take heed, beware of the leaven of themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17. And when Jesus knew it, he

Simon Barjona : for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter ; and upon this rock I will build my church : and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven : and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven : and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (2)

20. Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21. ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. (3)

22. Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord : This shall not be unto thee.

23. But he turned and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan : Thou art an offence unto me : for thou savorest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. (4)

24. ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25. For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it ; and whosoever will lose his life, for my sake, shall find it.

26. For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul ? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ?

27. For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels : and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

(1) See v. 23.

30. And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31. And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32. And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33. But, when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan : for thou savorest not the things that be of God ; but the things that be of men.

34. ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them ; Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me :

35. For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it : but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, and the gospel's the same shall save it.

36. For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul ?

37. Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ?

38. Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation ; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels.

21. And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing :

22. Saying, the Son of man must suffer many things ; and be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes ; and be slain ; and be raised the third day.

23. ¶ And he said to them all,

If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it : but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25. For what is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away ?

26. For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory and in his Father's and of the holy angels.

CHAP. XVII.

1. And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2. And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun: and his raiment was white as the light.

3. And behold there appeared unto them Moses and Elias, talking with him.

4. Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5. While he yet spake, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him.

6. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7. And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

2. ¶ And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter and James and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them,

3. And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow: so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4. And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses:

and they were talking with Jesus.

5. And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6. For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7. And there was a cloud that overshadowed them:

and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, hear him.

28. ¶ And it came to pass, about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James and went up into a mountain to pray.

29. And as he prayed the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30. And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias;

31. Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles: one for thee, one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

31. While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, hear him.

8. And when they had lifted up their eyes they saw no man save Jesus only.

9. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10. And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11. And Jesus answered, and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12. But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, and have done unto him whatsoever they listed.

Likewise also shall the Son of man suffer of them.

13. Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14. ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15. Lord, have mercy on my son; for he is linnatick, and sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. (1)

8. And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9. And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10. And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11. ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that Elias must first come?

12. And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at naught.

13. But I say unto you, that Elias is indeed come; and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed; as it is written of him.

14. ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes questioning with them.

15. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.

16. And he asked the Scribes, What question ye with them?

17. And one of the multitude answered, and said,

Master, I have brought unto thee my son which hath a dumb spirit:

18. And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him, and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away:

36. And when the voice was past

Jesus was found alone.

and they kept it close, and told no man, in those days, and of those things which they had seen.

37. ¶ And it came to pass that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38. And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying,

Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is my only child.

39. And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

ST. MATTHEW, XVII.

16. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17. Then Jesus answered and said,
O, faithless and perverse generation,
how long shall I be with you ?
How long shall I suffer you ?
Bring him hither to me.

(M. XVII. 15.)

18. And Jesus rebuked the devil :

and he departed out of him :
and the child was cured from that very hour.

19. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out ?

20. And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief ; for verily I say unto you,
If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out ; and they could not.

19. He answereth him and saith,
O, faithless generation,

How long shall I be with you ?
How long shall I suffer you ?
Bring him unto me.

20. And they brought him unto him : and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him : and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.

21. And he asked his father,
How long is it ago since this came unto him ?
And he said, Of a child.

22. And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him : but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us.

23. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24. And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe, help thou mine unbelief.

25. When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him :

and he was as one dead : in so much that many said, He is dead.

27. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up ; and he arose.

28. And when he was come into the house his disciples asked him privately,
Why could not we cast him out ?

29. And he said unto them,

40. And I besought thy disciples to cast him out ; and they could not.

41. And Jesus answering, said,
O, faithless and perverse generation,
How long shall I be with you ?
and suffer you ?
Bring thy son hither.

42. And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him.

And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child ;

and delivered him again to his father.

43. ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God.

21. How be it this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22. ¶ And while they abode in Galilee,

Jesns said unto them,
The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men :

23. And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. (1)
And they were exceeding sorry.

24. ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute ?

25. He saith, Yes.
And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon ? Of whom do the kings of the earth take custom, or tribute ? Of their own children, or of strangers ?

26. Peter saith unto him, of strangers ? Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27. Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up : and when thou hast opened his mouth thou shalt find a piece of money : That take, and give unto them for me and thee.

2. And Jesus called a little this kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30. ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee : and he would not that any man should know it.

31. For he taught his disciples, and said unto them,
The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men ; (1) and they shall kill him : and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32. But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33. ¶ And he came to Capernaum :

and, being in the house,

he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves, by the way ?

34. But they held their peace, for, by the way, they had disputed among themselves who should be the greatest.

35. And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. (2)

36. And he took a child, and

43. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,

44. Let these sayings sink down into your ears :
for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45. But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not :
and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46. ¶ Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47. And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him child unto him, and set him in the midst of them ;

3. And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7. ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences ! For it must needs be that offences come ; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh !

8. Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot* offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee ; set him in the midst of them ; and when he had taken him in his arms he said unto them,

37. Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me : and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38. ¶ And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name ; and he followeth not us : and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39. But Jesus said, Forbid him not ; for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

48. And said unto them,

Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me : and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me : for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

11. ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12. And the younger said to his father, Father give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land: and he began to be in want.

15. And he went and joined himself to a citizen in that country; and he sent him into his field to feed swine.

16. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17. And when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough, and to spare; and I perish with hunger!

18. I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19. And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20. And he arose and came to his father. But when he was a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran ; and fell on his neck ; and kissed him.

21. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22. But the Father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him ; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet :

23. And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it ; and let us eat, and be merry :

24. For this my son was dead, and is alive again ; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry :

25. Now his elder son was in the field ; and as he came, and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.

26. And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant.

27. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come ; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf ; because he hath received him safe and sound.

28. And he was angry ; and would not go in : therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

29. And he answering said to his father, Lo ! these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment ; and yet thou never gavest me a kid ; that I might make merry with my friends :

30. But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots ; thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31. And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me ; and all that I have is thine.

32. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad : for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again : he was lost, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1. And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward ; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2. And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I bear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3. Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my Lord taketh away from me the stewardship. I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4. I am resolved what to do: that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5. So he called every one of his Lord's debtors unto him; and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my Lord?

6. And he said, an hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write four-score.

8. And the Lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9. And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10. He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12. And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 (see P. 38.)

14. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things, and they derided him.

15. And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abominable in the sight of God.

19. ¶ There was a certain rich man which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

20. And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

21. And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22. And it came to pass that the beggar died ; and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died ; and was buried.

23. And in hell he left up his eyes, being in torments : and seeth Abraham afar off : and Lazarus in his bosom.

24. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me ; and send Lazarus ; that he may dip the tip of his finger in water ; and cool my tongue : for I am tormented in this flame.

25. But Abraham said ; Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things ; and likewise Lazarus evil things : but now he is comforted ; and thou art tormented :

26. And beside all this ; between us and you there is a great gulph fixed : so that they which would pass from hence to you, cannot : neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27. Then he said ; I pray thee, therefore, Father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house ;

28. For I have five brethren : that he may testify unto them : lest they also come into this place of torment.

29. Abraham saith unto him ; They have Moses and the prophets : let them hear them.

30. And he said : Nay, Father Abraham ; but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

23. ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him which owed him ten thousand talents.

25. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had; and payment to be made.

26. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28. But the same servant went out and found one of his fellow-servants which owed him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29. And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31. So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry; and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33. Shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34. And his lord was wroth; and delivered him to the tormentors till he should pay all that was due unto him.

gone up, then went he also up unto

12. And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him : for some said, He is a good deceiveth the people.

13. Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14. ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters,

25. Then said one of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill ?

26. But, lo ! he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ ?

27. Howbeit we know this man, whence he is : but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28. Then cried Jesus in the temple, as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am : and I am not come of myself : but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29. But I know him : for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30. Then they sought to take him : but no man laid hands on him ; because his hour was not yet come.

31. And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done ?

32. ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him ; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33. Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you ; and then I go unto him that sent me.

34. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me : and where I am thither ye cannot come.

45. * Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees ; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him ?

46. The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47. Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived ?

49. But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50. Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them.)

51. Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth ?

52. They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee ? Search, and look : for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53. And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

1. Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.

2. And early in the morning he came again into the temple : and all the people came unto him : and he sat down and taught them.

3. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery : and when they had set her in the midst,

4. They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5. Now Moses in the law commanded us that such should be stoned : but what sayest thou ?

6. This they said tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground : as tho' he heard them not.

7. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9. And they which heard it, being convinced by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last : and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers ? Hath no man condemned thee ?

11. She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee : Go ; and sin no more.

12. ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world : he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself ; thy record is not true.

14. Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true : for I know whence I came, and whither I go. But ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15. Ye judge after the flesh. I judge no man.

16. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true : for I am not alone ; but I and the Father that sent me.

17. It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18. I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19. Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father ? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me nor my Father : If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20. These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple : and no man laid hands on him ; for his hour was not yet come.

21. Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins : whither I go, ye cannot come ?

22. Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself ? Because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come ?

23. And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath : I am from above. Ye are of this world : I am not of this world.

24. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins : for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

[“ In every deed that saith that I also speak unto you”—Alford.]

25. Then said they unto him, Who art thou ? And Jesus said unto them, [Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.]

26. I have many things to say, and to judge of you ; but he that sent me is true ; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27. They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28. Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he and that I do nothing of myself : but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29. And he that sent me is with me. The Father hath not left me alone ; for I do always those things that please him.

30. As he spake these words many believed on him.

31. Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed :

32. And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33. * They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man : How sayest thou, Ye shall be made free ?

34. Jesus answered them, Verily verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever : but the Son abideth ever.

36. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37. I know that ye are Abraham's seed : but ye seek to kill me because my word hath no place in you.

38. I speak that which I have seen with my Father : and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39. They answered, and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God : this did not Abraham.

41. Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication. We have one father, even God.

42. Jesus said unto them, If God were your father, ye would love me : for I proceeded forth from God : neither came I of myself ; but he sent me.

43. Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my word.

44. Ye are of your father the devil ; and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own : for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45. And because I tell you the truth ye believe me not.

46. Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47. He that is of God heareth God's words ; Ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48. Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

49. Jesus answered, I have not a devil, but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50. And I seek not mine own glory ; there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52. Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets ; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead ? And the prophets are dead : whom makest thou thyself ?

54. Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing. It is my Father that honoureth me ; of whom ye say that he is your God :

55. Yet ye have not known him : and if I should say, I knew him not, I shall be a liar like unto you : but I know him, and keep his saying.

56. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day ; and he saw it, and was glad.

57. Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham ?

58. Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59. Then took they up stones to cast at him : but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple ; going through the midst of them : and so passed by.

CHAP. IX.

1. And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man or his parents, that he was born blind ?

3. Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents : but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4. I must work the works of him that sent me while it is day. The night cometh, when no man can work.

ST. JOHN IX.

5. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6. When he had thus spoken he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle; and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay:

7. And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore and washed; and came seeing.

8. ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9. Some said, This is he. Others said, He is like him. But he said, I am he.

10. Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11. He answered, and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash. And I went, and washed; and I received sight.

12. Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13. ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14. And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15. Then again the Pharisees also asked him, how he had received his sight.

He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes: and I washed, and do see.

16. Therefore, said some of the Pharisees, this man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17. They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, That he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a Prophet.

18. But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19. And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? How then doth he now see?

20. His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21. But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes we know not. He is of age: ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22. These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews. For the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ he should be put out of the synagogue.

23. Therefore said his parents, he is of age, ask him.

24. Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25. He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not. One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.

26. Then said they unto him again, What did he to thee? How opened he thine eyes?

27. He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear, Wherefore would ye hear it again? Will ye also be his disciples?

28. Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29. We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30. The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31. Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32. Since the world began was it not heard that any one opened the eyes of one that was born blind?

33. If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34. They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35. Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36. He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

40. And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41. Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin ; but now ye say, We see : therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAP. X.

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door, into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3. To him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice : and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4. And when he putteth forth his own sheep he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

5. And a stranger will they not follow ; but will flee from him : for they know not the voice of strangers.

6. This parable spake Jesus unto them : but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers : but the sheep did not hear them.

9. I am the door : by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved : and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10. The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them; and scattereth the sheep.

13. The hireling fleeth because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep; and am known of mine.

15. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16. And other sheep I have, but not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice: and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17. Therefore doth my Father love me; because I lay down my life; that I might take it again.

18. No man taketh it from me; but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down: and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

19. ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20. And many of them said, He hath a devil and is mad. Why hear ye him?

21. Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

25. Jesus answered them; I told you and ye believed not. The works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26. But ye believe not; because ye are not of my sheep; as I said unto you.

27. My sheep hear my voice; and I know them, and they follow me.

28. And I give unto them eternal life: and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29. My father, which gave them me, is greater than all: and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

33. The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not : but for blasphemy ; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34. Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods ?

35. If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came ; and the scripture cannot be broken ;

36. Say ye of him whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the Son of God ?

37. If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38. But if I do ; though ye believe not me ; believe the works : that ye may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him.

9. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another committeth adultery : and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

8. I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9. And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others.

10. Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are; extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12. I fast twice in the week: I give tithes of all I possess.

13. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven; but smote upon his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me a sinner.

14. I tell you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other. For everyone that exalteth himself shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15. And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them. But when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

13. ¶ Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them and pray:

and the disciples rebuked them.

he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16. And he took them up his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

16. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

2. (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3. Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4. When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5. Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6. When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the place where he was.

7. Then after that, saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.*

8. His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9. Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10. But if a man walk in the night he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11. These things said he, and after that, he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

12. Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13. Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14. Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there; to the intent ye may believe: nevertheless let us go unto him.

16. Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17. Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18. Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem; about fifteen furlongs off.

19. And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary to comfort them concerning their brother.

20. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

23. Jesus said unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life : he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live :

26. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this ?

27. She saith unto him, yea, Lord ; I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28. And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly ; saying, The Master is come and calleth for thee.

29. As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came unto him.

30. Now Jesus was not yet come into the town ; but was in that place where Martha met him.

31. The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her ; saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32. Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled :

34. And said, Where have ye laid him ? They said unto him, Lord, Come and see.

35. Jesus wept.

36. Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him !

37. And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died ?

38. Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh, for he hath been dead four days.

40. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God ?

41. Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid ; and Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me :

42. And I know that thou hearest me always ; but because of the people which stand by I said it ; that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43. And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44. And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes : and his face was bound about with a napkin, Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45. Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46. But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47. * Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council ; and said, What do we ? for this man doeth many miracles.

48. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him : and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49. And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year,* said unto them, Ye know nothing at all ;

50. Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people ; and that the whole nation perish not.

51. And this spake he not of himself : but, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation :

52. And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53. Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54. Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews ;

16. ¶ And behold, one came, and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17. And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18. He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder; thou shalt not commit adultery; thou shalt not steal; thou shalt not bear false witness;

19. Honour thy father, and thy mother: and thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up:

What lack I yet?

21. Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, Go, and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor: and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23. ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily, I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25. When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed; saying, Who then can be saved?

26. But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men, this is impossible, but with God, all things are possible.

there came one running and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, What shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18. And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is God.

19. Thou knowest the commandments, do not commit adultery; do not kill;

do not steal;
do not bear false witness;
defraud not;
honour thy father and mother.

20. And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth:

21. Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him; and said unto him, One thing thou lackest; go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor; and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up thy cross, and follow me.

22. And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23. ¶ And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God.

24. And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25. It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26. And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27. And Jesus, looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible; but not with God; for with God all things are possible.

18. And a certain ruler asked him saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19. And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? None is good save one; that is God.

20. Thou knowest the commandments,

do not commit adultery; do not kill;
do not steal;
do not bear false witness;

honour thy father and thy mother;

21. And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22. Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast and distribute unto the poor; and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23. And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

24. And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25. For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26. And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27. And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

27. * Then answered Peter, and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee :

What shall we have therefore ?

28. And Jesus said unto them, Verily, I say unto you, That ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive [an hundred]* fold,

30. But he shall receive an hundred fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions ; and in the world to come eternal life.

3. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place ;

8. So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the laborers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10. But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11. And when they received it, they murmured against the good man of the house;

12. Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13. But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong. Didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

32. And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me.

33. This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34. The people answered him, We have heard out of the law, that Christ abideth for ever : and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up ? Who is this Son of man ?

35. Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light ; lest darkness come upon you : for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36. While ye have light, believe in the light ; that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37. ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him :

38. That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Who hath believed our report ? and, To whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed ?

39. Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

40. He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart : that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted ; and I should heal them.

41. These things said Esaias when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42. ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him: but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

43. For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44. ¶ Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

46. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not, for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him at the last day.

49. For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50. And I know that his commandment is life everlasting. Whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

43. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side; and found nothing thereon but leaves only ;

and said unto it,
Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever.

And presently the fig tree withered away.

20. And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away !

21. Jesus answered, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, Ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea ; (1) it shall be done.

22. And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23. ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chief Priests and the Elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things ? and Who gave thee this authority ?

24. And Jesus answered, and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in the like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25. The baptism of John, whence was it ? From heaven, or of men ? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, from heaven, he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him ?

people will stone us : for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7. And they answered, That they could not tell whence it was.

8. And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

1. And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard ; and set an hedge about it ; and digged a place for the winefat ; and built a tower ; and let it out to husbandmen ; and went into a far country.

2. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3. And they caught him and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4. And again he sent unto them another servant ; and at him they cast stones ; and wounded him in the head ; and sent him away shamefully handled.

5. And again he sent another : and him they killed ; and many others ; beating some ; and killing some.

6. Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them ; saying, They will reverence my son.

9. Then began he to speak to the people this parable : A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen ; and went into a far country, for a long time.

10. And, at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard.

But the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11. And again he sent another servant ; and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully ; and sent him away empty.

12. And again he sent a third. And they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13. Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be they will reverence him when they see him.

Sr. MATTHEW, XXI.

38. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40. When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41. They say unto him, He will miserably destroy these wicked men; and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43. Therefore say I unto you, the kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45. And when the chief Priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a Prophet.

Sr. MARK, XII.

7. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8. And they took him, and killed him, and east him out of the vineyard.

9. What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do?

He will come, and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10. And have ye not read this scripture, The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner;

11. This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12. And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

Sr. LUKE, XX., XIV.

14. But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15. So they east him out of the vineyard and killed him.

What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16. He shall come and destroy these husbandmen; and shall give the vineyard to others.

And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17. And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18. Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

7. ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden ; when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms : saying unto them,

8. When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room : lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him ;

9. And he that bade thee and him come, and say to thee, Give this man place ; and thou begin, with shame, to take the lowest room.

10. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room ; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher : then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased ; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

M. XXIII. 12.

12. ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper ; call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours ; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

13. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind :

14. And thou shalt be blessed : for they cannot recompense thee : for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15. ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things ; he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

CHAP. XXII.

1. And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables ; and said,

16. Then said he unto him,

ST. MATTHEW, XXII.

2. The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3. And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding. And they would not come.

4. Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed: and all things are ready. Come unto the marriage.

5. But they made light of it; and went their ways: one to his farm;

another to his merchandize:

6. And the remnant took his servants and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8. Then said he to his servants, The wedding is ready; but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11. And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment;

12. And he saith unto him,

19. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen; and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused.

20. And another said, I have married a wife; and therefore I cannot come.

21. So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant;

Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22. And the servant said, Lord it is done as thou hast commanded; and yet there is room.

Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? and he was speechless.

21. And they asked him, saying, Master, We know that thou sayest and teachest rightly ; neither acceptest thou the person of any ; but teachest the way of God truly :

22. Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar ; or no ?

unto his brother :

26. Likewise the second also ;
and the third ;
unto the seventh.

27. And last of all the woman died also.

28. Therefore, in the resurrection,
whose wife shall she be of the seven ?

For they all had her.

29. Jesus answered and said unto them, ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God ; saying,

32. I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob ?

God is not the God of the dead,

but of the living.

33. And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34. ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35. Then one of them, which was a lawyer asked him a question, tempting him ;

36. Master, which is the great commandment in the law ?

37. Jesus said unto him,

Sr. MARK, XII.

21. And the second took her, and died ; neither left he any seed ;
and the third likewise ;

22. And the seven had her ;
and left no seed :
last of all, the woman died also.

23. In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, Whose wife shall she be of them ? For the seven had her to wife.

24. And Jesus answering, said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God ?

25. For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26. And as touching the dead, that they rise, have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying,
I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob ?

27. He is not the God of the dead,
but the God of the living :

Ye therefore do greatly err.

28. ¶ And one of the Scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him,

Which is the first commandment of all ?

29. And Jesus answered him,
The first of all the commandments is, Hear O Israel, The Lord our God is one God :

wife ; and he died childless.

31. And the third took her : and in like manner the seven also ; and they left no children ; and died.

32. Last of all, the woman died also.

33. Therefore in the resurrection, Whose wife of them is she ?
For seven had her to wife.

34. And Jesus answering, said unto them,

The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage ;

35. But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage.

36. Neither can they die any more :
for they are equal unto the angels :

and are the children of God :
being the children of the resurrection.

37. Now, that the dead are raised even Moses shewed at the bush
when he called the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.

38. For he is not a God of the dead,
but of the living :
for all live unto him.

39. ¶ Then certain of the Scribes answering, said,
Master, Thou hast well said.

40. And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind.

38. This is the first and great commandment.

40. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

ST. MARK, XII.

30. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first commandment.

31. And the second is like, namely, this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

There is none other commandment greater than these.

32. And the Scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth : for there is one God : and there is none other but he :

33. And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

31. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way : and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came, and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

1. Then spake Jesus to the multitude and to his disciples,

2. Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3. All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do:

But do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4. For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne; and lay them on men's shoulders: but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. (2)

5. But all their works they do for to be seen of men:

9. And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your father, which is in heaven.

10. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master, even Christ.

11. But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

And the common people heard him gladly.

1. And he looked up and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2. And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

1. And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple : and his disciples came to him for to show him the buildings of the temple.

2. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

3. ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives the disciples came unto him privately, saying,

Tell us when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world :

4. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5. For many shall come in my name saying I am Christ ; and shall deceive many.

6. And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars : see that ye be not troubled : for all these things must come to pass : but the end is not yet.

7. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom ; and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes,

1. And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here!

2. And Jesus answering, said unto him, seest thou these great buildings? There shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

3. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

4. Tell us, When shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5. And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you.

6. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ ; and shall deceive many.

7. And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled : for such things must needs be : but the end shall not be yet.

8. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be earthquakes in divers places ;

5. ¶ And as some spake of the temple how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

7. And they asked him, saying, Master, But when shall these things be? And what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8. And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived :

For many shall come in my name, saying,

9. But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified : for these things must first come to pass : but the end is not by and by.

28. Now learn a parable of the fig tree : When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near :

29. So ye, in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh ; even at the doors.

30. Verily, I say unto you, That this generation shall not pass till all these things be done.

Behold the fig tree, and all the trees :

30. When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

28. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot ; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded :

34. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35. Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning:

36. And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their Lord when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37. Blessed are those servants whom the Lord when he cometh shall find watching: Verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

CHAP. XXV.

1. Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them :

4. But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5. While the bridegroom tarried they all slumbered and slept.

6. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh ; go ye out to meet him.

7. Then all these virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps :*

* L. XII. 35, P. 143.

8. And the foolish said unto the wise, give us of your oil ; for our lamps are gone out.

9. But the wise answered, saying, Not so : lest there be not enough for us and you : but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came. And they that were ready went in with him to the marriage : and the door was shut.†

13. And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

* The similarity of these verses, L. XIX. 12 to 26, to those of St. Matthew XXV. 14 to 29; and the necessity of keeping St. Matthew as the standard of order; decided the placing here of these verses, (12 to 26). 10. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet; but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11. For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, ye are not all clean.

12. So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13. Ye call me, Master, and Lord; and ye say well: for so I am.

14. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet: ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his Lord: neither he that is sent, greater than he that sent him. (2)

17. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18. ¶ I speak not of you all:

he said, Verily, I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23. And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24. The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25. Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, Is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26. ¶ And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take; eat: This is my body.

27. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

Jesus said, Verily, I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19. And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him, one by one, Is it I? and another said, is it I?

20. And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish.

21. The Son of man indeed goeth as it written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22. ¶ And as they did eat, Jesus took bread and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take; eat; This is my body.

Chap. XXII., from P. 152.

15. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16. For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

19. ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them saying, This is my body which is given for you: This do in remembrance of me.

17. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves.

I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, he that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19. Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me, and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21. When Jesus had thus said he was troubled in spirit: and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22. Then the disciples looked one on another doubting of whom he spake.

23. Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24. Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25. He then, lying on Jesus' breast, saith unto him, Lord, Who is it?

26. Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27. And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29. For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast : or, that he should give something to the poor.

30. He then, having received the sop went immediately out. And it was night.

31. ¶ Therefore when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified : and God is glorified in him.

32. If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself : and shall straightway glorify him.

33. Little children, Yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me : and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go ye cannot come : so now I say to you.

34. A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another ; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36. ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou ? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now ; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

CHAP. XIV.

1. Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God ; believe also in me.

2. In my Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3. And if I go, and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself : that where I am, there ye may be also.

4. And whither I go ye know ; and the way ye know.

5. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, We know not whither thou goest : and how can we know the way ?

6. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life. No man cometh unto the Father but by me.

7. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also : and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8. Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip ? He that hath seen me, hath seen the Father. And how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father ?

10. Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me ? The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself : but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me : or else believe me for the very work's sake.

12. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also. And greater works than these shall he do : because I go unto my Father.

13. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do : that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14. If ye shall ask anything in my name I will do it.

15. * If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another comforter that he may abide with you for ever.

17. Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive ; because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him. But ye know him : for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18. I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you.

19. Yet a little while ; and the world seeth me no more : but ye see me. Because I live, ye shall live also.

20. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father ; and ye in me ; and I in you.

21. He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me : and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father : and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22. Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, How is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world ?

23. Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words : and my Father will love him : and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24. He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings ; and the word which ye hear is not mine ; but the Father's which sent me.

25. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance whatsoever I have said unto you. (1)

27. Peace I leave with you ; my peace I give unto you : not as the world giveth give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled : neither let it be afraid.

28. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice ; because I said, I go unto the Father : for my Father is greater than I.

29. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30. Hereafter I will not talk much with you, for the Prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

1. I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye except ye abide in me.

5. I am the vine, Ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit: so shall ye be my disciples.

9. As the Father hath loved me; so have I loved you; continue ye in my love.

10. If ye keep my commandments ye shall abide in my love: even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12. This is my commandment, that ye love one another; as I have loved you.

13. Greater love hath no man than this, That a man lay down his life for his friends.

14. Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15. Henceforth I call you not servants: for the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth. But I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

ST. MATTHEW, XXVI.

ST. JOHN XVI.

17. These things I command you, That ye love one another.

18. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own : but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his Lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21. But all these things will they do unto you for my Name's sake ; because they know not him that sent me.

22. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin : but now they have no cloke for their sin.

23. He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin ; but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me.

27. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

1. These things have I spoken unto you that ye should not be offended.

2. They shall put you out of the synagogues : yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think he doeth God service.

3. And these things they will do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4. But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5. But now I go my way to him that sent me : and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou ?

6. But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7. Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is expedient for you that I go away. For if I go not away the Comforter will not come unto you.

ST. MATTHEW, XXVI.

ST. MARK, XIV.

ST. LUKE, XXII.

ST. JOHN, XVI.

But if I depart I will send him unto you.

8. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment :

9. Of sin, because they believe not on me :

10. Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more :

11. Of judgment, because the Prince of this world is judged.

12. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot hear them now.

13. Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth ; for he shall not speak of himself : but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak : and he will shew you things to come.

14. He shall glorify me ; for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16. A little while, and ye shall not see me, and again a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17. Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, a little while and ye shall not see me : and again a little while and ye shall see me, and because I go to the Father ?

18. They said therefore, What is this that he saith, a little while ? We cannot tell what he saith.

19. Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, a little while and ye shall not see him : and again a little while and ye shall see me ?

20. Verily, verily I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice : and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come : but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22. And ye now therefore have sorrow. But I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice : and your joy no man taketh from you.

23. And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name. Ask and ye shall receive : that your joy may be full.

25. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs. But the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs ; but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

St. MATTHEW, XXVI.

St. MARK, XIV.

St. LUKE, XXII.

St. JOHN, XVII.

26. At that day ye shall ask in my name : and I say not unto you that I will pray the Father for you :

27. For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me ; and have believed that I came out from God.

28. I came forth from the Father ; and am come into the world. Again I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29. His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly ; and speakest no proverb.

30. Now we are sure that thou knowest all things and needest not that any man should ask thee : By this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe ?

32. Behold, the hour cometh ; yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own ; and shall leave me alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33. These things I have spoken unto you that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation, But he of good cheer ; I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1. These words spake Jesus ; and lifted up his eyes to heaven and said, Father, The hour is come : glorify thy Son ; that thy Son also may glorify thee :

2. As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3. And this is life eternal : that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

4. I have glorified thee on the earth : I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world. Thine they were ; and thou gavest them me ; and they have kept thy word.

7. Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8. For I have given to them the words which thou gavest me. And they have received them ; and have known surely that I came out from thee : and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9. I pray for them. I pray not for the world ; but for them which thou hast given me : for they are thine.

10. And all mine are thine, and thine are mine : and I am glorified in them.

11. And now I am no more in the world. But these are in the world : and I come to thee. Holy Father, Keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me : that they may be one, as we are.

12. While I was with them in the world I kept them in thy name. Those that thou gavest me I have kept ; and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13. And now come I to thee. And these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14. I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated them ; because they are not of the world ; even as I am not of the world.

15. I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

16. They are not of the world ; even as I am not of the world.

17. Sanctify them through thy truth : thy word is truth.

18. As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified, through the truth.

20. Neither pray I for these alone ; but for them also which shall believe on me through their word :

21. That they all may be one : as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee : that they also may be one in us : that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22. And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them, that they may be one, even as we are one.

23. I in them ; and thou in me ; that they may be made perfect in one : and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

24. Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me : for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25. O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee. But I have known thee ; and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26. And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it, that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it; and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no and buy one.

37. For I say unto you, That

36. ¶ Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane:
and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37. And he took with him
Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful, and very heavy.

38. Then saith he unto them,
My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39. And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me:

nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

32. And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane:
and he saith to his disciples,
Sit ye here while I shall pray.

33. And he taketh with him
Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy:

34. And saith unto them,
My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible the hour might pass from him.

36. And he said, Abba,
Father, all things are possible unto thee. Take away this cup from me. Nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37. And he cometh and findeth them sleeping; and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou?

Couldst not thou watch one hour?

38. Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

40. And when he was at the place, he said unto them,
Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41. And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down and prayed;

42. Saying, Father, if thou be willing remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done

43. And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44. And being in agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45. And when he rose up from prayer and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow.

46. And said unto them,

Why sleep ye?

rise and pray lest ye enter into temptation.

40. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep; and saith unto Peter,

What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41. Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation:

ST. MATTHEW, XXVI.

the spirit indeed is willing but the flesh is weak.

42. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, If this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43. And he came and found them asleep again : for their eyes were heavy.

46. Rise : let us be going : behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47. ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve came ; and with him a great multitude, with swords and staves, from the chief Priests and Elders of the people.

2. And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place : for Jesus also oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3. Judas then, having received a band of men, and officers of the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches and weapons.

4. Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth and said unto them, said unto them, Whom seek ye ?

5. They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6. As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7. Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye ? and they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

51. And beheld, one of them which were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, and drew his sword; and struck a servant of the high priest's; and smote off his ear.

52. Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place, for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53. Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54. And how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55. In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes,

Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves for to take me?

I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple; and ye laid no hold on me.

56. But all this was done that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57. ¶ And they that had laid hold on Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, (1) where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58. But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palæe,

47. And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48. And Jesus answered and said unto them,

Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords, and with staves to take me?

49. I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not; But the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50. And they all forsook him and fled,

51. And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth east about his naked body: and the young men laid hold on him:

52. And he left the linen cloth; and fled from them naked.

53. And they led Jesus away to the high priest. And with the servant of the high Priest, and cut off his right ear.

50. ¶ And one of them smote

51. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52. Then Jesus said unto the chief Priests and Captains of the temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53. When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me. But this is your hour and the power of darkness.

54. Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high Priest's house:

and Peter followed afar off.

10. Then, Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it, and smote the high Priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11. Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath.

The cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12. Then the band and the Captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus and bound him,

13. And led him away to Annas first: for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high Priest that same year. (1)

14. Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15. ¶ And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high Priest; and went in with Jesus, into the palace of the high Priest.

59. Now the chief Priests and Elders and all the council sought false witness against Jesus to put him to death.

60. But found none : yea, though many false witnesses came yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,

61. And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62. And the high Priest arose; and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee?

63. But Jesus held his peace. And the high Priest answered, and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God that thou tell us, whether thou be the Christ the Son of God.

64. Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said : nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven,

57. And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58. We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands ; and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59. But neither so did their witness agree together.

60. And the high Priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee?

61. But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high Priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed ?

And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

CHAP. XXVII.

1. When the morning was come, all the chief Priests and Elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, to put him to death.

2. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the Governor.

3. ¶ Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself; and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief Priests and Elders,

4. Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? See thou to that.

5. And he cast down the thirty pieces of silver in the temple, and departed. And went and hanged himself.

6. And the chief Priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8. Wherefore that field was called, the field of blood, unto this day.

9. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued; whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10. And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

Art thou the king of the Jews ?

33. Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the king of the Jews ?

34. Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me ?

35. Pilate answered, Am I a Jew ? Thine own nation and the chief Priests have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done ?

36. Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews. But now is my kingdom not from hence.

37. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then ?

Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king.

To this end was I born : and for this cause came I into the world ; that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth ?

And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

And he answering, said unto him, Thou sayest it.And he answered him, and said Thou sayest it.

12. And when he was accused of the chief Priests and Elders, he answered nothing.

3. And the chief Priests accused him of many things : but he answered nothing.

4. And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing ?

Behold how many things they witness against thee.

5. But Jesus yet answered nothing : so that Pilate marvelled.

4. Then said Pilate to the chief Priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5. And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people ; teaching throughout all Jewry ; beginning from Galilee to this place.

6. When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked, whether the man were a Galilean ?

7. And, as soon as he knew that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod : who himself was at Jerusalem at that time.

8. ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad. For he was desirous to see him of a long season : because he had heard many things of him : and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

15. Now at that feast the Governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner ; whom they would.

17. Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you ? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ ?

18. For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19. ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man : for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20. But the chief Priests and Elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

6. Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7. And there was one, named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him : who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8. And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9. But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews ?

10. For he knew that the chief Priests had delivered him for envy.

11. But the chief Priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

10. And the chief Priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11. And Herod, with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him,* and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe† : and sent him again to Pilate.

12. ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together : for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13. ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief Priests and the rulers of the people,

Now Barabbas was a robber. (1)

ST. MATTHEW, XXVII.

21. The Governor answered, and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22. Pilate saith unto them,

What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?

They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23. And the Governor said, Why? what evil hath he done?

But they cried out the more, saying,
Let him be crucified.

24. ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25. Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26. ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them.

And when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27. Then the soldiers of the Governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28. And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29. ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head; and a reed in his right hand; and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30. And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him; and put his own raiment on him; and led him away to crucify him.

ST. MARK, XV.

12. And Pilate answered and said again unto them,

What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13. And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14. Then Pilate said unto them, Why? What evil hath he done?

And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15. ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16. And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium: and they call together the whole band.

17. And they clothed him with purple; and platted a crown of thorns; and put it about his head.

18. And began to salute him, hail, King of the Jews!

19. And they smote him on the head with a reed: and did spit upon him; and bowing their knees worshipped him:

20. And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him; and put his own clothes on him; and led him out to crucify him.

ST. LUKE, XXIII.

20. Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

22. And he said unto them the third time, Why? What evil hath he done?

I have found no cause of death in him; I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23. And they were instant, with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief Priests prevailed.

24. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

51. And behold the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom: and the earth did quake; and the rocks rent:

52. And the graves were opened: and many bodies of the saints, which slept, arose,

53. And came out of the graves, after his resurrection; and went into the holy city; and appeared unto many.

14. Afterwards* he appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat;

36. ¶ And as they spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them; and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37. But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? And why do thoughts arise in your hearts? (1)

39. Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself! Handle me, and see: For a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41. And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered; he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?†

42. And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish and of an honeycomb.

43. And he took it, and did eat before them.*

* J. XXVI. 12, 15.

44. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me.

45. Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures.

46. And said unto them, Thus it is written; and thus it behoved Christ to suffer; and to rise from the dead the third day.

19. ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled; for fear of the Jews; came Jesus, and stood in the midst; and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21. Then said Jesus to them

16. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved :

but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17. And these signs shall follow them that believe. In my name shall they cast out devils : they shall speak with new tongues :

18. They shall take up serpents ; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them : they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19. ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20. And they went forth and preached everywhere ; the Lord working with them ; and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

48. And ye are witnesses of these things.

49. And behold I send the promise of my Father upon you.

But tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50. And he led them out as far as to Bethany. (2) And he lifted up his hands and blessed them.

51. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them ; and carried up into heaven.

52. And they worshipped him ; and returned to Jerusalem with great joy :

 not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
 7. Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter,
 It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked) and did cast himself into the sea.

ST. JOHN, XXI.

Lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord, Thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, Lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, lovest thou me: and he said unto him, Lord, Thou knowest all things; Thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldst: but when thou shalt be old; thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee; and carry thee whither thou wouldst not.

19. This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him; Follow me.

disciple should not die. Yet Jesus said not unto him, Thou shalt not die; but, if I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee.

24. This is the disciple which testifieth of these things; and wrote these things. And we know that his testimony is true.

NOTES ON THE FOREGOING PARALLEL.

The close identity which is evident between those parallel portions of St. Matthew's, St. Mark's, and St. Luke's Gospels, which commence with the third chapter and terminate at the end of the first verse of the twenty-eighth chapter of St. Matthew's text, seems to demonstrate that, within those limits, the staple both of St. Mark's and St. Luke's Gospel was drawn either from St. Matthew's, or from some original common to all three of them; although in the residue of their Gospel St. Mark and St. Luke entirely quit St. Matthew's Text.

St. Mark (a) has omitted various passages of St. Matthew's present Gospel; and in particular his two first chapters, (comprising the genealogy, the miraculous conception, the birth of Jesus, and the visit of the Magi), as well as the entire sermon: (contained in St. Matthew's fifth, sixth, and seventh chapters), and all St. Mark's reappearances of Christ after his resurrection differ entirely from those recorded by St. Matthew (Mk. XVI. 9, 12, 14, 19). He has also made some few additions (c) to St. Matthew's Text.

St. Luke, (b) who declares that he wrote for the use of Theophilus "those things believed among them as delivered by eye witnesses and ministers," has commenced by substituting for the two first chapters of St. Matthew two new ones; has distributed Matthew's sermon in detached verses through the sixth, eighth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, and sixteenth chapters of his own gospel; has explained certain of Matthew's original passages; and has made repeated additions to them (d), some of which appear to have been deduced from the text of St. Mark (f). St. Luke is the only evangelist who notices the abnormal conception of the Baptist's mother; or, who relates any incidents of Jesus' life, between his circumcision when an infant, and his baptism by John in manhood. Both St. Luke and St. Mark ignore those reappearances of Christ recorded by St. Matthew, and supply others (L. XXIV. 15 to 31, 36, 50, 51).

A similar comparison of St. John's Gospel with St. Matthew's produces striking results. St. John entirely omits the miraculous conception, and the birth of Jesus, His genealogy, His baptism by John, His temptation. The sermon, His peregrination and teachings in the provinces, all His prophecies set forth in St. Matthew's twenty-fourth chapter, His institution of the eucharist, and the eternal Hell. Instead of the forty days spent in the wilderness, he represents Jesus at the marriage feast in Cana; and in place of His progress through the provinces, St. John relates four extra visits to Jerusalem. He describes totally dissimilar reappearances after the resurrection (J. XX. 14 to 17, 19, 26; XXI. 7); and promulgates new and mystical revelations concerning the godhead of Christ—(See Compendium of Texts).

The frequent, and sometimes the peculiar, use of Peter's name, as well in St. Matthew's as in the two other Synoptic Gospels (g) is remarkable, and may be suggestive.
